

Collection of Haiku Poems of the Atomic Bombing

Ms. Mito Fukuda

The color won't fade / Miserable keloid / Genbakuki
I get older / Memories of my child / Genbakuki
On the bed / Silently alone / Genbakuki
I survived though / Now I'm blessed / Genbakuki
So many years / Become friends with my bed / Genbakuki
The day of doom / Terrifying to think of it / Genbakuki
Lonely, old and atom bombed / Show respect / Lonely days
Even in loneliness / Fortunate to live / Genbakuki
Simple life / I am surviving / Genbakuki
I am living / I'm fortunate / Gengakuki
Genbakuki / Peace declaration / Nuked mayor
The Public Peace Festival / Swell up over the sky / A big canopy
Oleander / Like listening to a voice / Genbakuki
What happens tomorrow / No insect knows / Meimuna opalifera
(a species of cicada)
Given / The precious remainder of our lives / Genbakuki
Genbakuki / Sunset drenched / The hypocenter
Willing to forget / Look at the album / Genbakuki
Become a butterfly / Not leaving memorial flowers / Genbakuki
Atomic bomb victims / The voices stay in my ear / Genbakuki
Genbakuki / My deceased child / Recall my child and weep
On The Peace Memorial / Straining voices / Large brown cicada
Oleander / Burned and colored / The area of the atomic bombing

Genbakuki / Insentient, clouds / May flash

Genbakuki / Composed collection of haiku poems / Love becomes thirsty

In loneliness / Fortunate to be alive / Gengakuki

Memorable / Mournful Memorial Portraits / Genbakuki

Surviving family members pass away / Sad to be alone and old / Genbakuki

This day / To the world / Call out Genbakuki

Burned corpses / Flame on the eyelids / Genbakuki

Many years / Can call out to spirits of the deceased / Genbakuki

Peace statue / Look up at the sky / Genbakuki

The Public Peace Festival / Chilly in evening sun / The color of sky

[Location at Bombing: Nagayocho]